

Robert Andersen

Robert Henry Andersen, 89, died Jan. 2, 2010.

He was born in Winthrop, Mass., May 14, 1920, the son of the late Henry and Anna (Peterson) Andersen. He graduated from Gloucester High School, Gloucester, Mass., and Essex Agricultural School, Danvers, Mass., before moving to Kingston, N.H., in 1944 with his wife, Marjorie (Jones) Andersen.

Active in harness racing since 1957, Mr. Andersen maintained a small stable and training center in Kingston, racing the New England circuit, as well as at Saratoga and Vernon Downs from 1957 through 1980. He moved to New York where he farmed dairy cows for a number of years before retiring to Florida where he worked at Pompano Park. His passion for harness racing spilled over to his children, with five of his six children and two grandchildren involved in the Standardbred industry.

Mr. Andersen was a member of Wingold Grange #308 of East Kingston for over 60 years; Masons; the First Congregational Church and the USTA.

He was a founder of the Kingston Standardbred Club; was a past Selectman in Kingston, N.H.; owned and operated the Andersen School Buses in Kingston for many years; was a farmer raising chickens, then cows, and then raised, trained and raced Standardbreds. He owned and operated the Kingston Camping Area.

He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Marjorie; daughters, Joann Brandt and Jean Caraluzzi; sons, Ralph (Ann), Albert (Ruth), Kenneth (Cindy) and Carl (Dale); 16 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother, Norman; sister, Ruth Gray Halpern; son-in-law, F. Lawrence Brandt; and grandson, Joseph Caraluzzi Jr.

Memorial contributions may be made to First Congregational Church of Kingston or a charity of your choice.

Robert Berry Sr.

Robert C. "Bob" Berry Sr., 67, of Shapleigh, Maine, died Jan. 11, 2010, at home after a brief illness.

He was born Oct. 22, 1942, in Stoneham, Mass., the son of Elmer L. Berry and Margaret May Berry, both of whom preceded him in death.

Mr. Berry grew up in Wakefield, Mass., and graduated from Wakefield High School in 1960. He was a standout athlete in high school and went on to play in the Cape Cod Baseball League and then the Cleveland Indians farm system. He was inducted into the Wakefield High School Athletic Hall of Fame as an assistant for the 1973 boys' basketball state championship team.

He moved to Shapleigh with his family in 1976 where he pursued his true love of training, breeding and racing Standardbreds for more than 30 years.

He was employed by the Bowl-A-Rama Bowling Lanes in Sanford for many years and also worked for Courtney Cleaners in York.

Mr. Berry is survived by his partner of 23 years, Suzanne Perry, and their son, Casey; his sons, Robert Jr. (fiancee Colleen Lemont), Dan (Patricia), and Glenn (Jennifer); and six grandchildren.

Guy Crouch Jr.

Guy Crouch Jr., 89, a former Standardbred owner and breeder, and the father of Kentuckiana Farms' Tom Crouch, died Jan. 27, 2010, at Tipton Hospital in Tipton, Ind.

Mr. Crouch was the son of Guy and Helen (Meyncke) Crouch. On May 28, 1937, he married Louise Wilburn.

He served as a Madison Township Trustee and as a Tipton County Councilman. He was a member of the Tipton Community School Board and president of the Tipton County Livestock Breeders Association.

Mr. Crouch was a ringmaster of the Tipton County 4-H livestock shows for many years and a strong supporter of the 4-H program. He was an active member of the Hazel Dell Friends church, serving in many capacities.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four children, Sherry (Larry)

Beach, Tom (Betty), Dan (Jane) and Ann Swift; 10 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; one great-great-granddaughter; brother, Max; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by four brothers, Ed, Clarence, Maurice and Bob; three sisters, MariLou Downs, Ruth and Patti; and one grandson.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Hazel Dell Friends Church, 4017 E. 300 N., Windfall, IN 46076.

Gale Dubbs

Gale C. Dubbs, 68, of New Madison, Ohio, died as a result of an automobile accident on Jan. 17, 2010.

Mr. Dubbs owned, raised, trained and drove Standardbreds for 40 years. He was a General Motors retiree, and was currently employed by the Greenville City School System. He was also a veteran of the U.S. Army.

He is survived by his wife, Janice (Grilliot); daughter, Teresa (Caton) McLearn; grandson, Wesley Gale McLearn; siblings, Philip (Shirley), Kathy (Dean) Dubbs, Marcia (Bob) McCue, and Craig (LuAnn); father-in-law, Robert L. Grilliot; and sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Marge Grilliot (Tom Jones), Jim Grilliot and Jeff (Kim) Grilliot. He was preceded in death by his parents, Phyllis (Cole) and Wilson; brother, Dean; and his mother-in-law, Helen Grilliot.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Greenville City School System.

George Grissinger

George Grissinger, 66, a longtime employee at Hanover Shoe Farms, died Jan. 14, 2009, after a long fight against lung cancer.

Known affectionately as "Greasy," Mr. Grissinger had worked continuously at Hanover since 1972. He took care of Hanover's number-one string of trotting colts each year. His most illustrious alumnus was world champion Donato Hanover.

Perhaps even more important than taking care of Hanover's top colt trotters, he was the farm's head night watchman and aided in foaling close to 400 foals each year.

Aside from horses, Mr. Grissinger's greatest enjoyment was baseball, specifically the Baltimore Orioles and Cal Ripken Jr. He never missed an Orioles game, from spring training onward. One of his greatest wishes was fulfilled last spring when Jim Simpson, Hanover's president, flew him to the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Mr. Grissinger treasured the photograph he had taken beside Cal Ripken's plaque.

Keith Haynes

Keith Haynes, 50, a longtime Ohio horseman, died Jan. 14, 2009, in Chesapeake City, Md.

Mr. Haynes was born Feb. 6, 1959, in Washington Court House, Ohio, and was involved in the sport for more than 30 years.

As a driver, he recorded 401 victories, with his mounts banking $988,432. His trainees recorded 205 victories and earned $744,644 since the USTA began keeping training records in 1991.

At the time of his death, Mr. Haynes was working for Jeff Fout at Winbak Farm, helping with the farm's racehorse stable.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth; mother, Elinor; sister, Connie Moore; brother, Robert; children, Brittany and Brian; a stepson, Steven; and several nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his father, Robert Sr.; and his first wife, Connie (Yahn), the mother of his children.

James Heflin

James F. Heflin, 71, of Edwardsburg, Mich., formerly of Kalamazoo and Constantine, died Jan. 2, 2010, in Memorial Hospital in South Bend, Ind., after an extended illness.

Mr. Heflin was born May 12, 1938, in Kalamazoo, the son of Francis G. and Margaret (Maturen) Heflin. He moved to the Edwardsburg area 12 years ago from Constantine. He was married Nov. 26, 1960, in Paw Paw, Mich., to Renae Peterson.

He was a member of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church, and the Church's Knights of Columbus. He was past president of Junior Chamber of Commerce of Constantine, a former member of Constantine Rotary Club and a former Clerk of Constantine Twp.

He enjoyed owning and training Standardbreds for years, and was a member of the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association and the USTA.

Most recently, Mr. Heflin worked for ABC Warehouse in Mishawaka, Ind., in sales.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children, Molly, Patricia Klinger, Michael, Matthew (Amy), Frank and Brian (Susan); 10 grandchildren; and siblings, Mary Beth (Joe) Boyle, Terri O'Dell, Robert (Barb), William (Bonnie)

Support is key to your horse's performance.

Kerckhaert Standardbred shoes - a smart choice.

The Standardbred market has long relied on the half round style to train and race. Kerckhaert's 9/16" and 5/8" Half Round design gives excellent heel support for better performance from your horse. The shape of the shoe minimizes the amount of work needed to get a good fit, and high quality steel provides sturdy wear at a great value.

Other styles available:
Full Swedge Front (Unclipped), Half Swedge (Unclipped) and Outer Rim Aluminum (Clipped and Unclipped).

Harold King

Harold W. King, 67, died at his home Jan. 1, 2010.

He was born in Findlay, Ohio, on Dec. 28, 1942, to Clyde King, who preceded him in death on April 16, 2009, and Maxine King.

Mr. King was a member of the USTA and the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association. He was affectionately known as "The King of Findlay" in the harness racing community. Along with his passion for harness racing, he loved spending time with his family and friends. He was also a member of West Independence United Methodist Church.

In addition to his mother, Mr. King is survived by his brother, Dennis (Esther); sisters, Nancy (Ron) Cobb and Diane (Ed) Cardwell; nieces and nephews, Gary (Teresa) Cobb, Tim (Berni) Cardwell, Steve (Jodi) Cobb, Heather (Steve) Gundlach, Dan King and Kimberly (Tim) Brannan; and great-nieces and nephews, Tylere, Andrew, Liam, Jessi, Jami, Eli and Clay Cobb, Emily and Luke Cardwell, Noah and Seth Gundlach, and Travis Brannan.

Memorial contributions may be made to Answering the Call Together, Inc., P.O. Box 564, Norwalk, OH 44857.

Howard Kuebler

Howard Kuebler, 87, a longtime Standardbred owner in California, died Dec. 29, 2009.

The father of California Hall of Fame horsemen Fred and Rick, Mr. Kuebler was born Oct. 12, 1922, to Charles and Mary Kuebler. Growing up in Jasper, Ind., with his older brother, Charles Jr., he was a basketball star and voted the "All American Boy" of his graduating class.

Mr. Kuebler entered the U.S. Marine Corps in September of 1942. He served as an active Marine for 40 months during World War II and rose to the ranks of Staff Sergeant.

In 1945, he met his future wife, Elise DeFrancesco, and they were married in 1948.

Mr. Kuebler attended Indiana University where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in 1950. He later achieved a Master of Arts degree in Education from New York University in 1951.

In 1960, the Kueblers moved to their longtime residence in Northridge, Calif. In 1964, they purchased My Hero Submarine Sandwich Shop, where Mr. Kuebler worked full time until they sold it in 2003.

In 1974, they formed the My Hero Racing Stable, named after their sand-

Helen Pyle

Helen Pyle, 88, died Dec. 26, 2009, in her home in Longwood, Fla.

Born in Frankfort, Ky., on May 19, 1921, Mrs. Pyle trained and showed gaited horses. She was track marshal at Springfield and Du Quoin, Ill., and also paraded the harness races held at Fairmount Park and Batavia Downs. She generally had two lead horses for parade work, but relied mostly on her faithful palomino, Gold Tony. She trained all of her horses and her favorite horse of all time was Golden Kent.

Mrs. Pyle also wrote the harness racing news for the Azalea Driving Park and for the horse papers and local Florida papers. Upon occasion she drove the starting gate for her husband, Harry.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harry; and her only son, David.

Henry Raimondo

Henry "Rico" Raimondo, 50, of Manchester, N.J., died Jan. 20, 2010, at Beth Israel Hospital in Newark.

Born and raised in Newark, he lived in Barnegat and New Egypt before moving to Manchester in 2005. He was the owner of Raimondo's Wholesale Florist in Lakewood and he owned, trained and bred Standardbreds in New Egypt.

He is survived by his wife of five years, Susan; son, Kris Erhard; daughter, Tara Erhard; brothers, Arsenio
