RETIRED AS THE ALL-AGE
WORLD CHAMPION
ON A FIVE-EIGHTHS...
1:48.2F

- Beginning with his November 25, 2006 win at The Meadowlands, Nuclear Breeze went on an incredible 8-week streak there, victorious in every start except one third-place finish, culminating in his 1:49.2 victory in the Presidential Final on January 27, 2007.
- He went on to punctuate the end of his racing career in July of 2007, setting all the fractions in an 11½-length romp in 1:48.2f—a new all-age world record!
- A multiple stakes winner at both two and three, he had a total of 48 career starts, finishing 38 times 1-2-3, with 27 wins, including 7 sub-1:50 victories!

The first commercial crop by Nuclear Breeze are yearlings in 2010. From two prior test breedings, he is the sire of the 2009 2-year-old stakes winner GONE NUCLEAR p,2,1:55.3f-'09 ($29,519) and a 2010 2-year-old. He stands his third season and all foals are eligible to the slots-fueled Pennsylvania Program.
